Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., July 30, 1880.

Sir:

I will thank you to inform this Office by return mail of the number of Standard Silver dollars that you will probably be able to coin during the month of August.

Your gold coinage should consist of at least one million each in eagles and half eagles.

Please say also when you will be able to receive a transfer of gold bullion from the New York Assay Office amounting to five or six million dollars, as the bars are ready for shipment and the Superintendent is desirous of forwarding them

RG104 E-1 Box 121

as soon as you may be able to receive them.

Very respectfully
R. E. Johnston
Acting Director

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Supt. Mint U.S.
Philadelphia.
